

2 Corinthians

Chapt		Verse Summary
1.	(1-2) (3-7) (8-11) (12-14) (15-22) (23-24)	Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ Blessed be God .. God of all comfort We pressed out of measure above strength For our rejoicing is this In this confidence I was minded to come To spare you I came not as yet
2.	(1-4) (5-11) (12-14) (15-17)	Out of much affliction and anguish of heart Ye ought rather to forgive him and comfort him A door was opened unto me of the Lord We are unto God a sweet savour
3.	(1-6) (7-11) (12-18)	Do we begin again to commend ourselves If the ministration of death ... was glorious We use great plainness of speech
4.	(1-2) (3-4) (5-7) (8-13) (14-18)	But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty The god of this world hath blinded God ... hath shined in our hearts We are troubled on every side For which cause we faint not
5.	(1-4) (5-8) (9-11) (12-13) (14-19) (20-21)	If our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved Whilst we are at home in the body Whether present or absent we may be accepted of Him Somewhat to answer them which glory in appearances They which live should not live to themselves Be ye reconciled to God
6.	(1-10) (11-13) (14-18)	We then as workers together with him Our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers
7.	(1) (2-4) (5-7) (8-11) (12-16)	Let us cleanse ourselves Great is my boldness of speech toward you We were troubled on every side I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry That our care for you in sight of God might appear
8.	(1-7)	See that ye abound in this grace also

2 Corinthians

Chapt		Verse Summary
8.	(8-15) (16-24)	for if there first be a willing mind The same earnest care into the heart of Titus
9.	(1-5) (6-7) (8-15)	I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren Every man as he purposeth in his heart God is able to make all grace abound towards you
10.	(1-2) (3-6) (7-11) (12-18)	That I may not be bold when I am present We do not war after the flesh Such wilt we be also in deed when we are present We will not boast of things without our measure
11.	(1-4) (5-12) (13-15) (16-33)	I fear ... your minds should be corrupted I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light Let no man think me a fool
12.	(1-5) (6-10) (11-13) (14-18) (19-21)	Yet of myself I will not glory Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities The signs of an apostle were wrought among you The third time I am ready to come to you I fear I shall not find you such as I would
13.	(1-2) (3-6) (7-10) (11-14)	In the mouth of two or three witnesses Ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me I pray that ye do no evil Finally brethren farewell
